Sparkleshark

Fourteen-year-old Jake, the classroom 'geek', takes refuge on the roof of a tower block in order to write his stories. Before long other young people join him and the taunting begins. Although at first he endeavors to hide he learns to fight back in the only way he knows how - storytelling. Soon the whole group is enmeshed in the story, enacting a fantastic tale which resonates with the dynamics of their own friendships and enmities

Sparkleshark is being performed in The Paragon on the 12th July. Tickets will be £5 for adults and £3 for children/concessions and will be available from the 1st July.
