CODE OF PRACTICE

Prestwich Arts College is working towards the INSPIRING IAG AWARD. The aim of the award is to:

1. Ensure young people get the support they need to make well informed, realistic decisions about their future through careers education, information, advice and guidance.
2. Have appropriate, up to date, accurate and impartial information and resources that all young people can access regardless of race, gender, religion, ability, disability social background or sexual orientation.
3. Ensure the organisational policies relating to careers education, information, advice and guidance (CEIAG) are up to date and regularly reviewed and reflect this code of practice.
4. Empower young people by informing them of how they can access CEIAG to help plan their future and make well informed, realistic decisions.
5. Offer all young people access to impartial and independent careers guidance by a qualified guidance professional, at a time and place that suits their needs.
6. Ensure that all staff working with young people are offered and access on-going training about qualifications/progression pathways and other relevant subjects.
7. Work in partnership, where appropriate, with opportunity providers including employers, Further Education, Training Providers and Youth Support Services.
8. Working with parents/carers to offer them information, advice and guidance to help them, help the child.
9. Involve young people in the design, delivery and evaluation of CEIAG programmes
10. Promote equality of opportunity celebrating diversity, challenging stereotypes and realising aspirations.
